Dear Iren,

Congratulations! The Honors staff has reviewed your application, and I'm pleased to report that you have been admitted to the Honors Program.

You will begin participating in the Honors Program in fall of 2005, and are now free to sign up for any open Honors sections or Honors courses. If you are not able to enroll in a suitable Honors course, you will need to sign up for "In-Course Honors" work for one of the non-Honors classes in which you are registered. In-Course contracts are due in the Honors office no later than the fifteenth day of the semester, which is September 12th for the fall 2005 semester. Note that you are required to complete three Honors credit hours each semester to retain the full benefits of participating in the Honors Program. Our website has complete information for you at <http://www.honors.ilstu.edu>. Click on "Current Students."

The Honors Program will be holding an informal orientation for newly admitted students on Tuesday, August 23rd, at 5:00 P.M., in Moulton Hall, Room 214. Please plan to attend this meeting, to hear about the Program requirements and privileges and to ask whatever questions you may have. We would like at that meeting to confirm your ilstu e-mail address in order to be able to send you announcements, including notices of scholarship opportunities.

Congratulations for your fine academic work, and welcome to the Honors Program. Please contact us (438-2559) if you have any questions.

Sincerely yours,

Summer 2005

Dear Student:

On behalf of the Honors Program at Illinois State University, I congratulate you on your superior academic achievement. Your success makes you eligible to participate in the Illinois State Honors Program, and I would like to invite you to consider joining the Program.

The Honors Program seeks to provide students at Illinois State the benefits of an excellent small-college education in the enriching context of a large, multipurpose university. Our nationally-recognized program offers participants close, caring attention, including regular, personal advice on course scheduling, career planning, and the variety of challenges at Illinois State. We also enable our students to learn from select professors, excellent teachers whose scholarship is often influential internationally. In addition, we sponsor social programs designed to create a supportive community of peers who share interests, career plans, personal concerns, educational goals, academic challenges, and fun! Our students find that the network of friends and associates they form in the Honors Program contributes dramatically to their personal and professional success after they graduate.

Please review the enclosed brochure (or the Honors website at <http://www.honors.ilstu.edu>), and consider the benefits of Illinois State's Honors Program. If you would like to apply for admission for the fall 2005 term, please note the application deadline is July 1, 2005. I also cordially invite you to attend the following optional information session, which will last no more than 45 minutes.

Tuesday, August 23rd 5:00 p.m. Moulton 214
